A Stewards Enquiry was held into the riding of Jockey P Vikram on his mount “LAVISH GIRL” in race No.33 –The Smart Chieftan Plate , run on Sunday, 21st April 2024 at the Weighing room ,Madras Race Club ,Hobart Park, Udhagamandalam at 5,30 pm on Friday 10th May 2024.who was issued a charge sheet No-40,under Rule No159(b) and 161(ii)of the Madras Race Club Rules of Racing for unsatisfactory riding and riding an indifferent race.On being questioned by the Stewards, Jockey P Vikram stated that there was no specific instructions since he had ridden the filly three times, he mentioned she had a small dash and wanted to use to her advantage. When pointed out by the Stewards why he was not with the bunch when the start was effected, he did not have a plausible answer. The Jockey stated that he was niggling her from 600 meters to keep up with the field and in the straight the winner (ROYAL DEFENDER)took off .

Trainer Vijay Singh was called in and asked to explain Jockey P Vikram's ride on his charge "LAVISH GIRL".He informed the Stewards that Jockey P.Vikram had ridden the filly three times and knew her well. He explained that the race came in early for her and maybe in his opinion the Jockey misjudged the race, he should have made his move much early thus placing his mount to a disadvantage position. He also opined that Jockey had no malafide intention.

In the presence of Jockey P Vikram and Trainer Vijay Singh, Race No. 33 was viewed. and was pointed out to the Jockey that he had all the opportunity to sit well up

In the presence of Jockey P Vikram and Trainer Vijay Singh, Race No. 33 was viewed. and was pointed out to the Jockey that he had all the opportunity to sit well up however, he decided to sit in the mid field thus placing his mount to a disadvantage and not keeping up with the field.

Having heard the submissions made by Jockey P Vikram and Trainer Vijay Singh and having viewed the race in question, the Stewards of the Club, along with the Chief Stipendiary Steward, after deliberation decided to suspend Jockey P Vikram's licence for 6 race days i.e. 25th and 26th May, 2nd June of Udhagamandalam Races and,1st,7th and 14th September 2024 of Madras Racing Season 2024-2025 for Unsatisfactory Riding and was severely warned to be more careful on his rides

He was permitted to ride work.

He was informed about his right to appeal.
